RETURN OF THE OLD MANAGER

S. H. H. Clark Restored to the Union Pacific with Supreme Authority.

THE EFFECT OF THE APPOINTMENT.

A Complete Reorganization of the System Expected, Which Will Lead to the Dropping of Official Heads.

The first radical step toward a reorganization of the Union Pacific executive force was taken Tuesday, when President Sidney Dil-Ion appointed S. H. H. Clark general manager of the road, succeeding W. H. Holcomb, General Manager Clark's first official act was to appoint Mr. Holcomb assistant gen eral manager.

The report of Mr. Clark's appointment as general manager was received with ex-pressions of congratulation by hosts of pressions of congratulation by hosts of friends in this city. Omaha is really Mr. Clark's home. His heaviest property interests and his best personal and business friends are here, and a great deal of good to Omaha is expected to come of his management of the Union Pacific.

It is understood that Mr. Clark has sold his St. Louis property and will at once remove to this city and make it his future home.

Mr. Holcomb is to be retained as Mr. Clark's assistant and will have his headquarters in Omaha also.

ters in Omaha also.

But there was a significant feature of President Dillon's appointment of Mr. Clark, and in turn of Mr. Clark's appointment of Mr. Holcomb. Both of these documents read "until further notice."

"until further notice."

It is pretty generally understood that Mr. Clark will be elected first vice president at the quarterly meeting of the directors on December 17, and that the title of general manager will be vested in Mr. Holcomb, Mr. Clark relying upon Mr. Holcomb for the active work of the general manager's office. These changes could not be made by the executive committee of the board of directors.

The next step in the reorganization will be the abandenment of the grand-division system of the road and the consolidation of the executive denartments and general offices at

of the road and the consolidation of the ex-ecutive denartments and general offices at Omaha. General agents or division agents in passenger and freight departments will succeed the army of general passenger and general freight agents now located at Denver, Cheyenne, Kansas City, Ogden, Portland Tacoma and other division points on the sys-tem. Who will be appointed in these posi-tions it is, of course, impossible to state but tem. Who will be appointed in these positions it is, of coarse, impossible to state, but a long list of changes will undoubtedly be made between this date and January I. The office of general traffic manager will be abolished and the work of that department placed in the hands of a general freight agent. This means the retirement of General Traffic Manager Melien and the probable appointment of J. A. Munroe as general freight and traffic agent. The coal department, with its force of clerks and general managers, will be abolished as a separate department and consolidated with some other department. No other change is anticipated in the general offices here until after the annual meeting of the stockholders in April next.

Members of the Union club have tele-graphed Mr. Clark expressing a desire to tender him a reception upon his return to Omaha, and asking him to name a date. No reply has yet been received.

INSPECTING THE ROCK ISLAND. The Road Will Be in Readiness for

Work on January 1. Yesterday a distinguished party of Rock : Island railroad officials consisting of A. Kimball, assistant to the president; W. L. Allen, general manager; H. T. Royce, general superintendent; G. F. Wilson, general master mechanic; A. R. Swift, superintendent of telegraph, of Chicago; John Givin, superintendent; Harvey Fox, train master of Des Moines and A. B. Brayton, chief engineer of Davenport, Ia., arrived in the city, and after lunching in the private car which was brought from the Bluffs over the Wabash, visited the Union Pacific and Burlington offices. Burlington offices.

Mr. Allen as spokesman for the party said spection and this time is for the purpose of looking over the new Lincoln extension. The work is about completed and we desire to make an examination of the country through which this line passes.

The branch will be opened for traffic on January I, and at the start we will put two trains each way per day. Should this not be sufficient to handle the passenger trade, we will give the Omaha and Lincoln people another train. There is one thing certain, we intend to give to the people as good service as any line with which we have to compete.

"These trains will all run into the present depot in this city and as soon as the new depot is completed we shall run all of our eastern trains to this side of the river."

The gentlemen will depart for Lincoln. this morning.

The throng that crowded our second floor in connection with our opening of holiday goods was larger than we expected, and our force of clerks was inadequate to properly attend to all those eager to share in our great bargain sale. Therefore, in justice to those not at-tended to, and to others who had not an opportunity of coming (except dealers), we will continue the sale this day and evening. A larger force of clerks en-gaged. We strongly advise all intend-ing buyers to take advantage of this grand opportunity, as an event of this kind will probably not occur again this

Washington and Oregon.

This new empire of the northwest is attracting universal attention and the reason for this is the almost unlimited resources that have recently been opened and the surprising growth of this region. Large agricultural areas; vast forests and immense deposits of precious metals are to be found in Oregon and Washing-ton, and by reason of the varied natural resources of the country this section offers unequaled opportunities for the investment of capital and location of industries that are not surpassed by the older sections of the United States. Union Pacific on account of its fast time, through Pullman sleepers and dining cars, free reclining chair cars and free colonist sleepers from the Missouri river, is conceded to be the favorite route for persons going to either Washington or Oregon.

For pamphlets fully descriptive of the above named states, or for rates, time of trains or any information pertaining to the Union Pacific, call on or address your nearest ticket agent or the under-signed, who will most cheerfully furnish any information that may be desired. CLARKE WINS, Close of the Great Suit Against John

R. Blatr, the Railroad Magnate. Judge Caldwell rendered a decision yester day morning in a case which has been pending in the United States court for the past ten years. The case is one which HenryS. Clarke of this city is plaintiff and John R. Blair, the New Jersey millionaire, is defendant. It involved the title to 10,000 acres of land in Cuming county, to which Blair claimed title by virtue of tax deeds.

The case was heard before Judge McCrary and Judge Brewer, and decisions were given in favor of Blair. The matter was reopened, however, by bringing a new suit on slightly different grounds, and the argument on the petition to quiet title was heard by Judge Caldwell Tuesday.
